Sermon Questions

1. What is polytheism and what does it look like in our culture? What does it look like in our lives?
2. Elijah is a prophet that is committed to prayerful dependence. What do we learn from him to apply to our own lives about prayer? Talk about how you can be prayerfully dependent.
3. What does Jesus mean when He says that He is the “the way, and the truth, and the life” (John 14:6)? How does your life display what you believe about this statement?
4. Life is a spiritual battle. How do we stay aware of the fact that we have an enemy that is “prowl[ing] around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour” (1 Peter 5:8)? What does it look like for you to resist the devil and submit yourself to the Lord?
5. In spite of a lifetime of not walking with God, when Ahab had a moment of repentance, God accepted him. What do we learn about God in his story? Talk about how and who you could share the good news of the gospel of God’s forgiveness this summer.
